Glory to Jesus Christ!

Glory Forever!

Welcome to St. George! Thank you for attending today's Divine Services. If you are a first-time visitor, please register your visit by completing the guest book located in the narthex. We would appreciate getting to meet you after liturgy, so feel free to join us during Coffee Fellowship! Every Sunday we remember the Resurrection of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. The word "Liturgy" means work of the people that means everyone participates through singing, praying, hearing the teaching, and opening our hearts to allow God's grace to enter. Anyone interested in learning more about our faith are encouraged to speak with one of our clergy.

Guidelines for Receiving Holy Communion for Orthodox Christians: Orthodox Christians fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist by receiving Holy Communion in fulfillment of Christ's command to eat His Body and drink His Blood. In order to be properly prepare to receive Holy Communion, the faithful should fast (no food or drink from midnight the night before), the Sacrament of Confession (7 years and older) within the last 2 months, being at peace with others, and striving to always love God and their neighbor. Frequent communion and regular confession are recommended for all faithful Orthodox Christians.

For other Christians: We welcome you to this celebration of the Divine Liturgy. Unfortunately, we cannot extend to you a general invitation to receive Holy Communion. Orthodox Christians believe that the Eucharist is an action of the celebrating community signifying a oneness in faith, life, and worship of our community. Reception of the Eucharist by Christians not fully united with us would imply a oneness which does not yet exist, but for which we must all pray. All, however, are welcome to partake of the blessed bread (antidoron) which will be given when coming forward to venerate (kiss) the Holy Cross and receive the final blessing from the priest. Again, welcome!

Live Streaming of Divine Services

St. George is open for all parishioners and visitors. If you cannot attend, please pray with us through our livestream which can be seen on our YouTube Channel:

NEEDY FAMILIES OF ST. GEORGE For years, our Ladies Auxiliary and parishioners have been so generous at Christmas and Pascha donating for needy families in our parish which Fr. Joe distributes to them privately. Between those two feasts, the needy families still struggle to make ends meet and at this time, there are no more funds to help. If you would like to donate, you can send a check to St. George with "needy families" as a memo. If you give cash, please put it in an envelope with your name and "needy families". Thank you and may God always bless your generosity!

True Joy:

Living According to the Will of God

by Abbot Tryphon, head of All-Merciful Savior Monastery on Vashon Island, Washington

How do we know we are living according to the will of God? We make sure we live a life that is focused on Christ and not let that which is temporary rule, for a life centered in Christ brings about true peace, wisdom, and knowledge, and we are given the grace to trust in God's Divine Providence for everything.

If we focus only on the things that haven't been done and ignore the little things that bring joy to our lives, we will find ourselves in a rut, constantly thinking of where we'd rather be living, or the job we'd rather have, or the work that still needs to be completed. We'll wake up one day and realize all we've needed for happiness has been right in front of us all the time.

How do we know we're living according to the will of God? The Elder Thaddeus of Vitovnica tells us, "He who lives according to God's will has no worries. When he needs something, he simply prays for it. If he does not receive that which he asked for, he is joyful as though he had received it. A soul that has given itself over to God has no fear of anything, not even robbers, sickness, or death. Whatever happens, such a soul always cries, 'It was the will of God'."
