Welcome to St. George! Every Sunday we remember the Resurrection of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. The word “Liturgy” means work of the people which means everyone participates through singing, praying, hearing the teaching, and opening our hearts to allow God’s grace to enter. For those who have committed themselves to the Orthodox Faith (through Baptism and/or Chrismation) it also means, if prepared, the reception of Holy Communion. Preparation includes the Sacrament of Confession (7 years and older) within the last 2 months, prayer, being on time for church, being at peace with others, attending the Divine Liturgy regularly, and fasting (no food or drink from midnight the night before). If you are new, just visiting, or have any questions, please introduce yourself to Father Joe. Please know that everyone is invited to venerate the Holy Cross and receive Holy Bread at the end of Liturgy. All are welcome to our Coffee Fellowship in the hall after Liturgy.

In the Divine Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom {The Golden-Mouth}, we sing these special hymns:

First Antiphon - Psalm 113

Verse 1. When Israel went forth from Egypt, the house of Jacob, from a people of strange language.

Refrain: Through the prayers of the Theotokos, O Savior, save us.

Verse 2. Judah became His sanctuary, Israel His dominion. Refrain

Verse 3. The sea looked and fled, Jordan turned back. Refrain

Verse 4. What ails you, O sea, that you flee? O Jordan that you turn back? Refrain

Glory to the Father ..., now and ever ... Amen. Refrain

Second Antiphon - Psalm 114

Verse 1. I love the Lord because He has heard, the voice of my supplication.

Refrain: O Son of God baptized in the Jordan, save us who sing to Thee, Alleluia.

Verse 2. Because He inclined His ear to me, therefore I will call on Him as long as I live. Refrain

Verse 3. The snares of death encompassed me; the pangs of hell laid hold on me. I suffered distress and anguish then I called upon the Name of the Lord. Refrain

Verse 4. Gracious and righteous is the Lord, and our God is merciful. Refrain

Glory to the Father ..., now and ever ... Amen. Only begotten Son...

Third Antiphon - Psalm 117

Verse 1. O give thanks to the Lord for He is good; for His mercy endures forever.

Verse 2. Let the house of Israel confess that He is good; for His mercy endures forever.

Verse 3. Let the house of Aaron now confess that He is good; for His mercy endures forever.

Verse 4. Let them now who fear the Lord confess that He is good; for His mercy endures forever.

Refrain {Troparion of the Baptism of Christ}: When Thou O Lord was baptized in the Jordan, the worship of the Trinity was made manifest! For the voice of the Father bare witness to Thee, and called Thee His beloved Son! And the Spirit in the form of a dove confirmed the truthfulness of His word. O Christ our God, who has revealed Thyself and has enlightened the world, glory to Thee!

باعتماذك يا رب في نهر الأردن، ظهرت السجدة للثالوث، لأن صوت الأب تقدم لك بالشهادة، مسمياً إياك ابناً وأنرت العالم أيها المسيح الإله المجد لك. محبوباً، والروح بهيئة حمامة يؤيد حقيقة الكلمة، فيا من ظهرت

Hymns after the Entrance with the Gospel

Troparion of the Resurrection—Tone 7

Thou didst shatter death by Thy Cross. Thou didst open paradise to the thief. Thou didst turn the sadness of the ointment-bearing women into joy; and didst bid Thine apostles proclaim a warning, that Thou hast risen O Christ, granting to the world the great mercy.

Troparion of the Baptism of Christ—Tone 1 (as above)

Troparion of St. George—Tone 4

As deliverer of captives and defender of the poor, healer of the infirm, champion of kings: Victorious Great Martyr George, intercede with Christ our God, for our souls' salvation.

بما أنك للمأسورين محرراً ومعتقاً، وللفقراء والمساكين عاضداً وناصراً وللمرضى طبيباً وشافياً وعن المؤمنين مكافحاً ومُحارباً أيها العظيم في الشهداء جاورجيوس اللابس الطفر تنسفع إلى المسيح الإله في خلاص نفوسنا.

Kontakion for the Baptism of Christ—Tone 4

Today Thou hast appeared to the universe and Thy light, O Lord, has shone on us, who, with understanding, praise Thee: Thou has come and revealed Thyself, O Light unapproachable.

January 17th — ST. ANTHONY THE GREAT

Saint Anthony, the Father of monks, was born in Egypt in 251 of pious parents who departed this life while he was yet young. On hearing the words of the Gospel: "If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell what thou hast, and give to the poor" (Matt. 19:21), he immediately put it into action. Distributing to the poor all he had, and fleeing from all the turmoil of the world, he departed to the desert. The manifold temptations he endured continually for the span of twenty years are incredible. His ascetic struggles by day and by night, whereby he mortified the uprisings of the passions and attained to the height of dispassion, surpass the bounds of nature; and the report of his deeds of virtue drew such a multitude to follow him that the desert was transformed into a city, while he became, so to speak, the governor, lawgiver, and master-trainer of all the citizens of this newly-formed city. The cities of the world also enjoyed the fruit of his virtue. When the Christians were being persecuted and put to death under Maximinus in 312, he hastened to their aid and consolation. When the Church was troubled by the Arians, he went with zeal to Alexandria in 335 and struggled against them in behalf of Orthodoxy. During this time, by the grace of his words, he also turned many unbelievers to Christ.

Saint Anthony began his ascetic life outside his village of Coma in Upper Egypt, studying the ways of the ascetics and holy men there, and perfecting himself in the virtues of each until he surpassed them all. Desiring to increase his labors, he departed into the desert, and finding an abandoned fortress in the mountain, he made his dwelling in it, training himself in extreme fasting, unceasing prayer, and fierce conflicts with the demons. St Anthony spent, as mentioned above, twenty years in complete isolation and constant struggle with the demons, and he finally achieved perfect calm. The saint's friends removed the stones from the entrance, and they went to St Anthony and besought him to take them under his guidance. Soon St Anthony's cell was surrounded by several monasteries, and the saint acted as a father and guide to their inhabitants, giving spiritual instruction to all who came into the desert seeking salvation. Saint Athanasius the Great, who knew him personally and wrote his life, says that he came forth from that fortress "initiated in the mysteries and filled with the Spirit of God." Afterwards, because of the press of the faithful, who deprived him of his solitude, he was enlightened by God to journey with certain Bedouins, until he came to a mountain in the desert near the Red Sea. He became an example of virtue and a rule for monastics, he reposed on January 17th in the year 356, having lived altogether some 105 years. In the year 544 the relics of St Anthony were transferred to Alexandria and after the conquest of Egypt by the Saracens in the seventh century, they were transferred to Constantinople. The holy relics were transferred from Constantinople in the tenth-eleventh centuries to a diocese outside Vienna. In the fifteenth century they were brought to Arles (in France), to the church of St Julian.
