The First Antiphon - Psalm 102

(The Faithfull stand and read)

People (right): Bless the Lord, O my soul; blessed art Thou, O Lord. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me bless His holy name. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all that He has done for you.

People (left): Who is gracious unto all your iniquities, Who heals all your infirmities. Who redeems your life from corruption, Who crowns you with mercy and compassion. Who fulfills your desire with good things; your youth shall be renewed as the eagle's.

People (right): The Lord performs deeds of mercy, and executes judgment for all who are oppressed. He has made His ways known unto Moses, unto the sons of Israel the things that He has willed. Compassionate and merciful is the Lord, long-suffering and plenteous in mercy.

People (left): Not unto the end will He be angered, neither unto eternity will He be wroth. Not according to our iniquities has He dealt with us, neither according to our sins has He rewarded us. For according to the height of heaven from the earth, the Lord has made His mercy to prevail over those that fear Him.

People (right): As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our iniquities from us. Like as a father has compassion upon his sons, so has the Lord had compassion upon those that fear Him; for He knows how we are made, He has remembered that we are dust.

People (left): As for man, his days are as the grass; as a flower of the field, so shall he blossom forth. For when the wind is passed over it, then it shall be gone, and no longer will it know the place thereof.

People (right): But the mercy of the Lord is from eternity, even unto eternity, upon those that fear Him. And His righteousness is upon sons of sons, upon those that keep His testament and remember His commandments to do them.

People (left): The Lord in heaven has prepared His throne, and His kingdom rules over all. Bless the Lord, all His angels, mighty in strength, that perform His word, to hear the voice of His words.

People (right): Bless the Lord, all His hosts, His ministers that do His will. Bless the Lord, all His works, in every place of His dominion, bless the Lord O my soul.

People (all): Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

The Second Antiphon - Psalm 145

People (right): Praise the Lord, O my soul. I will praise the Lord in my life, I will chant unto my God for as long as I have my being.

People (left): Trust not in princes, in the sons of men, in whom there is no salvation. His spirit shall go forth, and he shall return unto his earth. In that day all his thoughts shall perish.

People (right): Blessed is he of whom the God of Jacob is his help, whose hope is in the Lord his God, Who has made heaven and the earth, the sea and all that is therein.

People (left): Who keeps truth unto eternity, Who executes judgment for the wronged, Who gives food to the hungry. The Lord looses the fettered; the Lord makes wise the blind; the Lord sets aright the fallen; the Lord loves the righteous; the Lord preserves the proselytes.

People (right): He shall adopt for His own the orphan and widow, and the way of sinners shall He destroy. The Lord shall be king unto eternity; your God, O Zion, unto generation and generation.

People (all): Now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen. O only-begotten Son and Word of God, Who art immortal, yet didst deign for our salvation to be incarnate of the Holy Theotokos and Ever-Virgin Mary, and without change didst become man, and was crucified, O Christ God, trampling down death by death. Thou Who art one of the Holy Trinity, glorified with the Father and the Holy Spirit, save us.

The Beatitudes

(To be sung by chanters)

People: In Thy kingdom remember us, O Lord, when Thou comest in Thy kingdom.

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the sons of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for My sake.

Rejoice and be exceeding glad, for great is your reward in heaven.

The Creed

(To be read)

People: I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and the earth and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Only-begotten, begotten of the Father before all worlds; Light of Light, Very God of Very God; begotten, not made; of one essence with the Father, by Whom all things were made;

Who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven, and was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and was made man;

And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate, and suffered and was buried;

And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures;

And ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of the Father;

And He shall come again, with glory, to judge the quick and the dead; Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of life; Who proceedeth from the Father; Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified; Who spake by the prophets.

And I believe In One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church.

I acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins.

I look for the Resurrection of the dead, And the life of the world to come. Amen.

(To be chanted)

Reader: Remit, pardon, forgive, O God, our offenses, both voluntary and involuntary, in deed and word, in knowledge and ignorance, by day and by night, in mind and thought; forgive us all things, for Thou art good and the Lover of mankind.

People: Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Deacon: Through the prayers of our holy fathers, Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy on us, and save us.

People: Amen.

(The faithful may now sit)

Reader: Resurrection Kontakion Tone 3:

Thou didst rise today from the tomb, O Merciful One, and didst lead us out of the gates of death. Today Adam dances and Eve rejoices; and together with them both the Prophets and Patriarchs unceasingly praise the divine might of Thine authority.

Brethren, I would have you know that the Gospel which was preached by me is not man's gospel. For I did not receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came through a revelation of Jesus Christ. For you have heard of my former life in Judaism, how I persecuted the Church of God violently and tried to destroy it; and I advanced in Judaism beyond many of my own age among my people; so extremely zealous was I for the traditions of my fathers. But when He Who had set me apart before I was born, and had called me through His grace, was pleased to reveal His Son to me, in order that I might preach Him among the Gentiles, I did not confer with flesh and blood, nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were Apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia; and again I returned to Damascus. Then after three years I went up

GOSPEL (for the 6th Sunday of Luke)

The Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Luke (8:26-39)

At that time, Jesus arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is opposite Galilee. And as He stepped out on land, there met Him a man from the city who had demons; for a long time he had worn no clothes, and he lived not in a house but among the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before him, and said with a loud voice, "What hast Thou to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beseech Thee, do not torment me." For Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. [For many a time it had seized him; he was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters, but he broke the bonds and was driven by the demon into the desert.] Jesus then asked him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Legion"; for many demons had entered him. And they begged Jesus not to command them to depart into the abyss. Now a large herd of swine was feeding there on the hillside; and they begged Jesus to let them enter these. So He gave them leave. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned. When the herdsmen saw what had happened, they fled, and told it in the city and in

Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gadarenes asked Jesus to depart from them; for they were seized with great fear; so He got into the boat and returned. People: Grant this, O Lord.

Deacon: Calling to remembrance our all-holy, immaculate, most blessed, and glorious Lady the Theotokos and Ever-virgin Mary with all the Saints, let us commend ourselves and each other, and all our life unto Christ our God.

People: To Thee, O Lord.

Deacon: Through the prayers of our holy fathers, Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy on us, and save us.

People: Amen.

(The faithful now stand)

Reader: Lord, have mercy (40x).

Thou Who at all times and at every hour, in heaven and on earth, art worshipped and glorified, O Christ God, Who art long-suffering, plenteous in mercy and most compassionate, Who loves the just and has mercy on sinners, Who calls all to salvation through the promise of good things to come: Do Thou the same Lord receive our prayers at this present hour, and direct our life according to Thy commandments. Sanctify our souls, make chaste our bodies, correct our thoughts, purify our intentions, and deliver us from every sorrow, evil and pain. Compass us about with Thy holy angels, that, guarded and guided by their host, we may attain to the unity of the faith and to the knowledge of Thine unapproachable glory; for blessed art Thou unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Lord have mercy (3x).

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

(The deacon at this time enters the altar through the south door and adds hot water to the chalice which is on the altar.)

People: Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal: have mercy on us (3x).

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

All-holy Trinity, have mercy on us. Lord, cleanse us from our sins. Master, pardon our iniquities. Holy God, visit and heal our infirmities for thy name's sake.

Lord, have mercy (3x).

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; now and ever and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Deacon: Through the prayers of our holy fathers, Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy on us and save us.

People: I believe, O Lord, and I confess that Thou art truly the Christ, the Son of the Living God, Who didst come into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief. And I believe that this is truly Thine own immaculate Body and that this is truly Thine own precious Blood. Wherefore, I pray Thee, have mercy upon me and forgive my transgressions, both voluntary and involuntary, of word and of deed, of knowledge and of ignorance. And make me worthy to partake without condemnation of Thine immaculate Mysteries unto remission of my sins and unto life everlasting. Amen.

Of Thy Mystic Supper, O Son of God, accept me today as a communicant; for I will not speak of Thy Mystery to Thine enemies; neither will I give Thee a kiss as did Judas; but like the thief will I confess Thee: Remember me, O Lord, in Thy Kingdom.

Not unto judgment nor unto condemnation be my partaking of Thy Holy Mysteries, O Lord, but unto the healing of soul and body.

(While the deacon is communing himself the choir may sing the communion hymn.)

(After communing with the spoon at the altar, the deacon opens the royal doors and exits the altar with the chalice to serve the faithful.)

Deacon: With the fear of God, and with faith and love, draw near.

People (sung): Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord; the Lord is God and has revealed Himself unto us.

(Choir sings communion hymns while all the faithful commune.)

(After all have communed, the deacon reenters Holy Altar through the royal doors, places the chalice on the proskomedia table covered by the kalima, closes the royal doors, folds up the Antiminsion and returns to the analogion via the north door.)

People (sung): Blessed be the Name of the Lord, henceforth and forever more. Amen. (3x)

People (all): Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Thanksgiving - Psalm 33

People (right): I will bless the Lord at all times, His praise shall always be in my mouth. In the Lord shall my soul be praised; let the meek hear and be glad.

People (left): O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt His name together. I sought the Lord, and He heard me, and delivered me from all my tribulations.

People (right): Come unto Him, and be enlightened, and your faces shall not be ashamed. This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of all his tribulations.

People (left): The angel of the Lord will encamp round about those that fear Him, and will deliver them. O taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed is the man that hopes in Him.

People (right): O fear the Lord, all you His saints; for there is no want to those that fear Him. Rich men have turned poor and gone hungry; but they that seek the Lord shall not be deprived of any good thing.

People (left): Come you children, hearken unto me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord. What man is there that desires life, who loves to see good days?

People (right): Keep your tongue from evil, and your lips from speaking guile. Turn away from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.

People (left): The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and His ears are opened unto their supplication. The face of the Lord is against those that do evil, utterly to destroy the remembrance of them from the earth.

People (right): The righteous cried, and the Lord heard them, and He delivered them out of all their tribulations. The Lord is nigh unto those that are of a contrite heart, and He will save the humble of spirit.

People (left): Many are the tribulations of the righteous, and the Lord shall deliver them out of them all. The Lord keeps all their bones, not one of them shall be broken.

People (right): The death of sinners is evil, and they that hate the righteous shall do wrong. The Lord will redeem the souls of His servants, and none of those will do wrong that hope in Him.

The Dismissal

Deacon: Wisdom

People: It is truly meet to bless you, O Theotokos, the ever-blessed and all-blameless, and the Mother of our God. More honorable than the cherubim and more glorious beyond compare than the seraphim, you who without loss of virginity gave birth to God the Word, true Theotokos we magnify you.

Deacon: Through the prayers of our holy fathers, Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy on us and save us.

People: Amen.

In quiet reverence, the people proceed to the analogion at the east end of the nave where in pairs they bow deeply, reverence the Gospel book and Cross, receive a small piece of bread and quietly depart the church - stopping at the doors of the nave to reverence the icons and finally, facing the altar, cross themselves before departing in peace. During this time the reader should read the prayers after communion followed by other appropriate dismissal readings (the canon, the poyeleos, the praises, etc.).
